DEDICATION

In honor of her dependability, loyalty, efficiency, and helpfulness, we proudly dedicate this edition of the WOLFPACK to Mrs. Wanda Norman. These pictures remind us of some of the many extraclass responsibilities she has so cheerfully assumed during her six years here at WHS - sponsor for junior and senior classes, advisor for the newspaper, and co-sponsor of the yearbook. The students, especially the seniors, and the faculty sincerely appreciate the many services she renders and the good encouragement she gives.

As the dawn disperses the night, so education dissolves the blindness of ignorance. Let not the lamp of education be extinguished, but rather glow with increasing intensity —

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

I am happy to have this opportunity to say thanks to all of you who have helped to complete another successful school year. As you turn the pages of this book, you can observe the many good things that are taking place in our school.

Let's all continue to dedicate ourselves to the task of maintaining the best possible school and community for the good of our children and one that is honorable and divinely acceptable.

I congratulate the yearbook staff for a job well done in preserving the memories at WHS, 1971-72.

CHARLES HOGAN, Senior

TRUDY MACK, Senior

MYRA MELDER, Senior

PHIL MILSTEAD, Senior

DAVID SAVAGE, Senior

The staff proudly recognizes nine students as being outstanding in ability and performance.

The eight seniors and one junior chosen for this honor were selected by members of the faculty on the basis of achievements in both academic and extracurricular areas.

CHARLES HOGAN has been active in 4-H club and achieved many honors one of which was the Senior Key Award. Throughout high school he participated in Vo-Ag and FFA work, serving in many offices including President and placing each year at the Rally. Other services included President of the Student Council, Boys' State, and Basketball. Although TRUDY MACK attended WHS only in her senior year, she was recognized and appreciated by students and teachers for her art work. Trudy has worked faithfully and extensively in designing and in drawing for numerous projects and activities. She also participated in Glee Club and FHA. An outstanding student in English and social studies, MYRA MELDER served as editor of the school newspaper in her senior year and received the DAR Good Citizen Award. Other activities included Glee Club, Girls' State, FHA, 4-H, and manager of the basketball team. Selected by the faculty as Mr. WHS and Best All-round Senior this year was PHIL MILSTEAD. The students chose him as Most Courteous and Best Personality. Phil was a valuable basketball player, having won the Best Sportsmanship Award in his senior year. He has been an active member of FFA and yearbook staff. Serving as captain of basketball team in his senior year, lettering four years and receiving the Scholastic Award was DAVID SAVAGE. Active in other areas, David served as President of senior class, yearbook photographer, secretary-reporter of FFA, and member of P. L. Team. He was voted by the students as Most Dependable. RAMONA SELF, recognized for her talents and service in music, was President of Glee Club in her senior year. Her contributions as vocalist and pianist in many programs was enjoyed and appreciated by students and teachers. Some of her other honors and services included head cheerleader, Junior and Chapter Homemaker Degrees, Vice-President of the senior class, and accompanist for three church choirs. Selected for her versatility, dependability, and service was DARLA WYATT. Positions of leadership she assumed in her senior year were yearbook editor, senior class reporter, 2nd Vice President of FHA, Glee Club, and basketball team. Because of her outstanding performance she was voted by the faculty Miss WHS, Miss FHA, and Outstanding Business Student. The students also chose her as Most Dependable and Miss Congeniality in the Beauty Pageant. Throughout high school, DEBBIE WYATT has excelled in art activities and looks forward to a career in Commercial Art. This year she served as art editor for the newspaper, designed ad pages for the yearbook, and sketched for many FHA activities. Debbie was twice chosen by the students as FFA Sweetheart and Best All-round. This year she served as FHA President and Student Council Vice-President. REBEKAH SWANNER, achieving Perfect Attendance this year, has maintained a good academic record. Extra class activities included Activities Editor of WOLFPACK, Sports Editor of WOLF PROWL, basketball team manager, and FHA. She was selected as Girls' State Representative.

LIONS INTERNATIONAL OBJECTS

TO CREATE and foster a spirit of generous consideration among the peoples of the world through a study of the problems of international relationship.

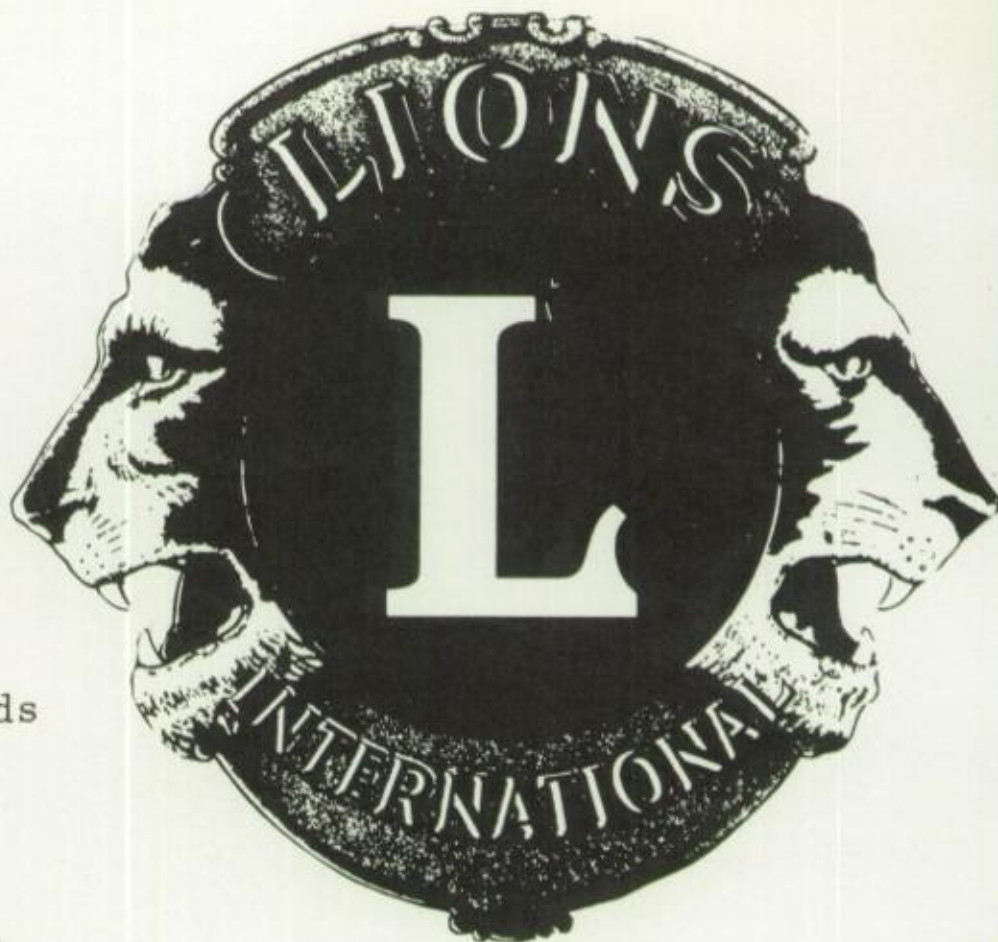

TO PROMOTE theory and practice of the principles of good government and good citizenship.

TO TAKE an active interest in the civic, social, and moral welfare of the community.

TO UNITE the members in the bonds of friendship, good fellowship, and mutual understanding.

TO PROVIDE a forum for the full and free discussion of all matters of public interest, partisan politics, and sectarian religion alone excepted.

TO ENCOURAGE efficiency and promote high ethical standards in business and professions; provided that no club shall hold out as one of its objects financial benefits to its members.
